America's Oldest and Most Experienced Military History Tour Operator

Mike Grams will be taking over for Mike Hanlon, guiding our established WW1 tours to Europe. Mr. Grams, an American citizen, was born in Verdun where his Father was based; his Mother worked as a French translator from St.Mihiel. He has lived and travelled extensively throughout France, and speaks French fluently. He returned to the U.S. in 1972. Mike and his Wife are making plans to move back to France very soon. He has escorted many groups and individuals around France since retiring from the wine business.

“Come tour France with me, a native of Verdun and St.Mihiel, and see the AEF and France from a really different perspective. We will be staying at the Historic Chateau Hattonchatel, in the very heart of the St.Mihiel Salient! We will bring to life the battlegrounds you have read and heard about: Bealleau Wood, the Meuse-Argonne, Verdun, Seichprey, and so much more. This is the land of RinTinTin, Sgt. Stubby and Rags, where General Pershing, Patton, and MacArthur all squared off against Crown Prince Willhelm and General Max von Gallwitz, where Alvin York and Billy Mitchell made history. I promise you a tour to be remembered.”

Mike Grams

We will spend five nights at the Hattonchatel Chateau, outside of Verdun.
